LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

OUR TERMS

Are One Dollar a Year in Advance!

Persons who receive a paper with this article marked, may know that they should mail or otherwise send the subscription price, if they wish to continue to receive The Times.

CORRESPONDENTS will please bear in mind that letters received later than Saturday evening, or the down mail on Monday morning have to lay over until the following week.

The Steel-Works in York county have been put into successful operation.

Severe thunder showers have visited the surrounding counties. All our exchanges have accounts of damages done by wind and lightning.

Looked Nice.—We have seen several ladies recently whose heads were not disgraced by false hair, or the ugly chignon. Several gentlemen who have seen them were much pleased, and the general verdict was, "how nice they look."

San Stroke.—A man named Alex Adams, employed on the railroad, was prostrated by the heat on Monday last, while engaged at his work on the railroad a short distance below Newport. Medical aid was speedily procured, and the probabilities are that Mr. Adams will soon recover.

A Young Man named Orlando Kelly was found dead in a hog-pen in Restraver twp., Westmoreland county, not long since. He had been out hunting, and a rain coming up he took refuge in the hog-pen where, from some unknown cause, the gun was discharged, and the contents entered his forehead.

Incendiary Fires have been quite frequent in Altoona for some time past. The authorities have succeeded in arresting a portion of the gang, who have been engaged in the rascally business, and two of them have been committed to jail in default of bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Accidents from trying to use coal oil to light fires with, are of so frequent occurrence that it would seem as though persons would soon learn not to attempt to use it for that purpose. During the past week three accidents of that kind have occurred in this State; two of them proving fatal.

Killed.—Daniel Kleckner, whose family, consisting of a wife and one child, reside in Greenwood tp., near Millerstown, was lately killed in Shamokin by the premature discharge of a blast in a coal mine. The deceased was a son of Michael Kleckner of Saville twp., this county.

Dr. Shoeppe don't want to be hung, and pathetically appeals to Governor Geary to pardon him, so that he may join the Prussian army, and fight against that "impudent man," (as he calls Napoleon.) We don't believe that Prussia wants that kind of help, and think probably that the Governor will be of the same opinion.

State Teachers' Association.—The annual meeting of this association will be held in the court house at the city of Lancaster, on the 9th 10th and 11th of this month. It is expected that the exercises will be very interesting, and of great importance to the cause of education. Information regarding accommodations may be had by addressing Col. W. L. Bear, Lancaster.

Census Items.—The Deputy Marshal for Buffalo and Waits townships, and Buffalo borough reports as follows, in regard to the population, number of farms, &c.: New Buffalo Borough: Dwellings, 46; Families, 59; Population, 259. Waits Township: Farms, 47; Dwellings, 73; Families, 82; Population, 465. Buffalo Township: Farms, 80; Dwellings, 149; Families, 146; Population, 771.

The Weather For July.—According to the report of B. McIntire, Esq., of this borough, the weather statistics for the past month are as follows:

Quantity of rain which fell, was 6 inches and 2 tenths. Average heat at 8 A. M., 71 deg. 14 min. Average of the greatest heat 87 deg. 14 min. Average of the greatest cold, 65 deg. 45 min. The warmest day was Monday, the 18th, the thermometer 97 degrees. The coolest day was Sunday the 31st, thermometer at 71 degrees.

A Cannon Goes off Without a Noise.—On Wednesday of last week, a man named "Cannon," who was in jail in this borough awaiting trial, for stealing a horse from John Beard, of Centre township, made his escape. This he did by scaling the wall with a rope which he made by tearing up his bed tick, and attaching it to the wall with a hook he made from some wire. After reaching the top, he jumped to the alley in the rear of the yard, and up to the present time nothing has been learned as to his whereabouts. A reward of fifty dollars is offered for his arrest. The sheriff and jailer were both absent from town on business at the time, so that the fellow had a good start before any pursuit was made.

The Bloomfield Academy has, under the management of the present proprietor, Wm. Grier, Esq., been remarkably successful. For next term, which commences on the 29th inst., Mr. Grier has secured the services of Prof. W. H. Dill, who is a graduate of Rutgers College, and a teacher of experience. Under his supervision as Principal, we have no doubt that scholars will improve as rapidly as they have during the past term, and that the present popularity of the academy will be well maintained. We trust the citizens of the county will give this institution the hearty support that its merits entitle it to.

The Illustrated Humorist.—We have received the July number of the above. With this number commences its regular publication, and no charge will be made to subscribers for the May number, or specimen copy. Published at Fayetteville, N. Y., by F. A. Darling, at fifty cents a year. Persons who enjoy a humorous paper, should not fail to send their subscription.

Tuscarora Academy, Academia, Pa.—More than three thousand young men have gone forth from this school, so trained in all the branches of scholarship, as to enable many of them to reflect honor upon themselves, and the institution at which they received their education.

The large experience and earnestness of the Principals in the cause of education, will contribute much to the successful training of youth entrusted to their care. Terms $200. Send for a circular.

Church and Railroad.—A meeting is to be held in the Presbyterian church on next Friday evening to see what means can be taken towards repairing and improving that building. We believe the best way to do it would be to make the railroad from Duncannon to this place, and this town would grow so rapidly that church improvements would follow as a matter of course. As one or two of the commissioners of the proposed road are interested in this church improvement we offer the above suggestion for their consideration.

Secrets of the Toilette.—Recently, a lady well advanced in years, who had renounced the pomps and vanities of the world, was curious to know some of the tricks, and repaired to a famous professor of the art for rendering her sex "beautiful forever." Addressing the Parisian "Rachel," she said, "Perhaps you mistake the motive of my visit; I have come to endeavor to repair what is irreparable." "Madame, I am quite at your service," said the enameleur. "Well, how do you go to work?" "I employ several methods. If you wish to be done thoroughly, like—(naming a certain great lady), several days of preparation are necessary. Look in this magnifying mirror. You see all the wrinkles and hollows which time has imprinted upon your face. Well, I first fill up these with fine silken threads, which are carefully laid in each wrinkle, and attached by some adhesive preparation. This takes a very long time, and requires great dexterity of hand. When every wrinkle is thus filled up, I spread over the face one of my preparations, which fixes the thread firmly to the skin, and keeps them all in their place. After that a slight dusting of violet powder, which must be constantly renewed. This process will last for a month, after which it must be repeated." "Well," said the lady, "but during the month, how about washing the face?" "You must not think of washing, nor even blow your nose. That would disturb the position of the threads laid in the grow's feet, madame." The priestess of the fountain of youth then detailed more minutely other less elaborate means of repairing the ravages of time, mentioning various titled dames, who had been "rejuvenated" in a most successful manner and informing her visitor that "permanent beauty," equivalent to a new skin, cost only 500 francs and other minor improvements in proportion.

A Cattle Epidemic.—The people of Salem Va., a town about fifty miles from Alexandria, on the Orange, Alexandria and Manassas railroad, are sadly afflicted by the loss of nearly every milch cow in that locality from the effects of a disease, sudden and violent in its attack, and which in the three days has carried off nineteen cows while many others will probably die. The Washington Republican says:

"The disease is supposed to have been brought into the neighborhood by a herd of Texas cattle recently pastured in the vicinity of the town while awaiting a market. As soon as the animal contracts the disease her milk is dried at once, the kidneys cease their action, while the stomach refuses to perform its functions. In some cases a quantity of mucous forms in the windpipe, and a spasmodic action is noticed about the head.—Various remedies have been applied by the owners, but nothing has been found sufficiently efficacious to prevent a fatal termination. The citizens are greatly exercised in regard to the matter, and threaten dire vengeance upon the heads of the Texan drovers if they can be found. In some States these cattle are prevented by law from being brought within its boundaries, and our Virginia friends urge that some action must be taken in their State."

In a Well.—A few days since a little girl living at York, fell into a well about twenty feet deep, but was brought out by two men, and was found to be but little injured.

Busy Season.—It's always busy season at Oak Hall. We have been there at all times of the day and all seasons of the year, but never saw it "dull" there yet.

Chickens about the size of a robin have been selling in this borough for the past week quite freely at 30cts per pair. To ask such a price seems like robbing the purchaser.

DEATHS.

MILLER.—In Juniata township, July 25th., 1870, Mr. Edward Wesley Miller, aged 28 years, 10 months and 8 days. He died in peace.

And now, beloved brother, farewell! Thy warfare is accomplished. Thy tears are all wiped away. Thou hast landed where "the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest." We rejoice that no man took thy crown. We rejoice that after thy work was done, thou wast permitted in thine own quiet home to meet the last enemy. Thy dying pillow was not perplexed by those anxious forebodings that have tried the faith of so many. The wife of thy youth is following hard after thee; and thy brothers and sisters, we trust, are resolving at thy hallowed grave, that they shall not travel alone, but that they will journey with her. And we who are left behind are looking after thee, saying:

"Our separation is only temporary. A time of reunion is hastening on. Farewell! Farewell! We shall soon meet thee in that world where the voice of mourning is heard no more forever." (Funeral services by Rev. B. G. Huber.)
